YAKIMA MOHAWK COMPANY HAS A NEAR FATALITY

A near fatality occurred at the Yakima Mohawk mine south of town Wednesday when a delayed fire set off a charge of powder and injured Arthur Pratti and Marco Angiolini who were working in the bottom of the shaft at the time. Owing to the fact that there was a quantity of muck over the hole at the time the explosion was greatly muffled and Pratti and Angolini escaped with bruises and lacerations. They were taken to the Nevada City Sanitarium for treatment by Dr. R. F. Werner. The hole held fire for more than an hour and a half.

The shaft has now reached a depth of 170 feet and will be pushed to the 200 level where a 25 foot sump will be cut and a station. Crosscutting to the west will be run for some distance to determine the location of the various ledges known to exist on the property. The formation at the bottom of the shaft indicates proximity of a ledge at the present time.

President John Sawbridge of the Yakima Mohawk compasy operating the property was the mine last week on an inspection trip and reported himself as highly pleased at the progress that has been made.

GOLD SPECIMENS SOLD TO DENVER COLLECTOR

The beautiful cabinet of gold specimens which have been the cyoosure of admiring eyes for a number of years at the Bank of America vaults have been sold by the owners of the Red Ledge mine where they were mined, to a Denver collector for $50 an ounce. Since R. F. Williamson's death last year the remaining owners of the mine have decided to dispose of them for a standing offer made by the Colorado collector and he came the past week and took them with him. There had been a movement to have the Nevada County Development Association purchase the specimens and keep them for display purposes but the movement never got past the talking stage. Siskiyou county took enough interest to purchase $80,000 worth, mostly placer gold, which it keeps on display at the state fair and at the Yreka court house.

TOLEMAN BUYS HOME

Philip M. Toleman, general manager of the J. E. Mirriam mining interests on the Pacific Coast and in charge of operations at the Grizzly Ridge mine above North Columbia, the past week purchased the former Williams home on the Downieville road which he proposes to eventually remodel into a modern home for his family. The transaction was handled by O. D. Woodman.

STREET SINKS

Due to the recent storm, a sink hole appeared in Spring street back of the R. J. Bennetts home. The place is over some of the workings of the old Stiles mine which had caved in and caused the depression. The street force got busy with filling.

MORE NEW MEMBERS FOR LOCAL MINING CHAPTER

Since the list of members given on page five of this issue ,two more have come in making the total membership now 95 in the local chapter of the mining Association of California. This leaves only five to go to make the first hundred. This chapter is now only thirty behind the largest chapter in the state association and with the present rate of growth we will soon be the biggest chapter the association boasts.

A membership has been received from W. W. Casserly, superintendent of Primrose mine at Sierra City and one from Harry S. Furlong of Auburn, prominently connected with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

If every member would bring in at least one new one it would not take long to reach the coveted 250 mark.

ROUGH AND READY JOTS

ROUGH and READY, Dec. 14, (Special to The Nugget)—We all regret the passing of one of our old neighbors, Mrs. Isabelle Nile. She was a fine Christian woman with a wonderful soul and mind She believed all her teachings and would not believe evil of anyone. Her family has our sympathy and her cheerful presence will be missed by all who knew her, as there are few women who can equal her. A large number of friends attended her funeral.

"And still it rains" is th comment you hear every one making after our long drought was broken last Sunday. We have had a steady down pour, which was welcome to everyone. Now people are wishing for sunshine as much as they wanted rain.

MONARCH ALCALDE LOSES JUDGE TUTTLE'S RULING

In the case of tne Alcalde Gold Mines vs. New Monte Monte Christo Mining Co. Judge Tuttle made an order sustaining the demurrer which was interposed to the complaint by the defendant.

The plaintiff alleges that it rtceived $15,000 as consideration for the deed which it is sought to havt set aside, but does not allege that it has returned or offered to return the money. The court is of the opinion that an attempt is made to allege fraud in the inception of the contract, by the fact that C. C. Julian, president of the defendant company, claimed the stock of the defendant company was of great value, which the complainant alleges was not the fact, and that it is of no value whattver. Another fault of the complaint is the fact that the defendant company failed to allege that the plaintiff knew the statement to be false, the court states.

Action was brought by plaintiff to have court set aside a deed made by it to the defendant and which, it is alleged, was recorded without authority.

QUEEN LIL SHAFT SINKING GOING AHEAD NICELY

Sinking of the shaft on the Queen Lil property west of town has been progressing steadily the past week, the two shifts averaging six feet per day since work was commenced Tuesday. It is proposed to sink from 75 to 100 feet below the present 260 level and prospect the ledge on which the sinking is being done.

The Queen Lil vein which showed reputed richness in its previous workings is one of the footwall veins of the Wyoming system along the west rim of the previous Champion property which producted in its heydey between twenty and thirty millions and which has many boosters still for more riches in its depths. From one small block of ground the Queen Lil vein is said to have produced around $30,000 down to shallow depth.

Should developments warrant the shaft sinking will be continued to greater depth. Excellent surface equipment has been installed for handling the work including electric power, compressor and hoist facilities. Rolfe Buffington is in charge of operations. Gordon M. Bettles, who holds options on all the former Champion properties north of Deer Creek is having the work done on the Queen Lil to get into the footwall territory of the large amount of virgin ground just west of the Champion mine.

CENSUS TAKING HAS NEED OF ENUMERATORS

For the first time in history, the decennial census for 1930 is to include a retail and wholesale outlet survey in addition to enumeration of population and manufacruring.

This ansouncement was made last week by the Census Bureau at Wahington and has, according to census officials, necessitated a reorganization of the census force of 4th California District, of which this county is a part.

According to plans now entertained by H. B. Thomas of Placerville, Supervisor of the 4th District, the Census Bureau has decided to conduct a business survey immediately after January 1t. This survey, it is planned, will be started immediately after January 1st and must be completed before the beginning of the population enumeration on April 1st.

In accordance with plans announced, it is necessary for the immediate appointment of enumerators, both for business survey and for the regular population enumeration in April. Those who desire appointments, either for the business survey or for the regular enumeration in April, have been urged to file applications with the Supervisor above named or direct with the Census Bureau at Washington at the earliest opportunity.

COZY CORNER CHAT

THE ACTION OF THE Nevada City Chamber of Commerce in volunteering a membership in the new state mining association the past week is but indicative of the progressive policy being pursued by this civic body on numerous projects. Any time that mining gets on its feet again, Nevada City will blossom forth as the rose and the new organization has already created a feeling of confidence throughout the state that individuals and organizations have been eager to tie in with. The Chamber membership makes the 89th in the local chapter which has set out to obtain at least 250 members by early the coming spring. The list of members to date is printed on another page and is worthy the perusal of our readers. Also is printed the form of application for memberhip and it is to be hoped that it will be generously used and aid us in our fight to get mining firmly reestablished once more. The officers of the state association and the local chapter are serving without salary or expense of any kind and pay their dues the same as anyone else. Get behind the organization idea 100 per cent and watch everything go once more in the mining camps of California, many of which have been driven to the wall by the costs of labor and operation since the war. The autocratic attitude of the compensation insurance rating bureau which evidently intends to put mining out of business if it can will soon change once our organization gets fully under way and makes its influence felt. We have suffered long enough from its attitude. More power to the state association.

THE SPLENDID WORK done by the mining department of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce should not be overlooked. Had it not been for this faithful little band, the state mining association could probably not have come into being. The publisher has attended some of their luncheons and was astonished at the practical work being done by this organization which meets weekly on Friday noons at the Travelers Hotel to discuss topics of mining interest. It was out of this organization that the state wide idea was born and nurtured. Many of its members have direct interest in mining affairs. They have started something that will put California's first major industry once more into real activity .California will be the rich gainer from their efforts. R. L. Kimmel as the efficient secretary of association is much to be congratulated for his far seeing policies adopted since he took up the mining work is who has organized and carried on the work. AAW

FLYING PROSPECTORS

Imagine a prospector sighting a likely looking gold ledge from an airplane!

It was done within the week up near Nevada City from which district, long ago, the assays were made which started the rush to the Comtock. There is a contrast in the picture of the old time prospector, following the trail with his faithful pack animal, and the two Oakland men who looked down from the sky, saw what they believed a promising ledge, marked the spot and returned by automobile.

This time, though, modern invention is not to mean the end of the older order. An airplane cannot pan the dirt or see the bright specks in the black sand. It cannot follow the small traces which, to the old-time prospector, are as directing words in a book. Nevertheless, the first aerial prospectors, two beardless youths in an Oakland plane, have taked their frist claims.—Oakland Tribune.

SCIENCE HELD OUR GOLD LOW GRADE IRON ORE ONLY

(Alturas Plaindealer)

Even in the days before stock market crashes and their dire consequences conservation was not altogether unknows as shown by a number of interesting volumes in the possession of Judge E. C. Bonner here which deal with the early discoveries of gold in California.

Had these articles which appeared in the Scientific American and date back to the year 1848 proven correct it is possible that California might now have been known as the Iron state rather than the Golden state.

The early editions of the scientific journal contained interview and analytical articles by an eminent scientist which held that the so-called gold which had been discovered in California was nothing more than iron pyrites of low value and investors were cautioned to proceed slowly in making investments in California mining property on the basis of the discovery which had been reported.

In a later issue the same magazine published an article by the same author in which he said that upon further examination he believed that the specimens which had been submitted to him really were gold after all.

So today we are citizens of the Golden State in spite of the unsuccessful attempt of this scientist to change our metallurgical existence into baser chemicals.

XMAS CHEER FURDS

By Vivian Cerro

Was there ever a more humane movement than the Christmas cheer funds those sympathetic and merciful drives that are gradually working their way into the hearts of the people of every community and spreading from town to town all over the United States? I think no one can say there is, for its very helpfulness and its achievements will convince one of its benevolence.

The title, Christmas Cheer Funds, is an appropriate one, for it does bring Christmas cheer to the homes of the poor and needy. Pick up any large city paper, and you will see horrid accounts of some families struggling along trying to eke out a bare living and to drive the proverbial "wolf from the door". I recall a tale of one family that had been existing for some months on dog-food—dry stale bread, bought at fifty-cents a sack. In hearing these accounts, one gasps and says, "Can it be true? Indeed it is true!" Most of us see only the surface and not the deep interior of the living and the lives of the destitute.

There can always be found some alert people who thru pity and tenderness seek out these homes, penetrating into their means of existence and helping them. They are the people who are responsible for the big movement of the Christmas Cheer Funds. They are the people who are enthusing all of the other people, making them realize the very destitution of the homes and appealing to the people for money to bring foeod, clothing, presents and Christmas cheer to the needy.

This need is more prevalent in the large cities than in small towns. Even here in our own Nevada City there will be sponsored a similar movement by the Women's Civic Improvement Club. This is more for the children, however, in that a Christmas tree program will be again used this year. The movement is different this year from what it was last year in that the children of the town will be able to show their Christmas Spirit by giving instead of receiving.

These Christmas plans, no matter how small, are ideal and should be patterened after. They all command the respect of the people who contribute funds to the cause, not in the sense that the giver is held high in the estimation of his neighbors thru his liberality, but from pure Christmas spirit, and compassion.

These poor people who are befriended have more faith in life, and in humanity. Their crude dwellings are warmed just as much by the Christmas spirit as the very expensive hearthstones of the rich.

Good luck to thee Christmas Cheer Funds, and to the ones who are sponsoring them!

100% SCHOOL SPIRIT

By Joe Cartoscelli

The school spirit of the Nevada City high school is one hundred per cent. All the school faculty or the student body council has had to do is to ask for cooperation from the students and they give it one hundred per cent.

A few weeks ago Mr. Wilson asked if anyone would like to go to Folsom and root for the basketball teams. There were approximately fifty who decided to go. Although the bus could seat only thirty-five comfortably the students were willing to sit on boxes and on the floor of the bus just to go to do their share.

When the games had been played we came home not with two victories, but with three. The "A" team won by a score of 33 to 11. The B basketball team won its game twenty-eight to six (28-6), and the third victory belongs to the high school rooting section, for they outyelled, out-numbered, and outclassed Folsom's rooting section. The Folsom's section might have made a little showing, but their school spirit was poor. Many of their students were either booing their teams or yelling for our teams. Such an example as this has never been shown in our school and we know it never will.

With a school spirit of this kind in our high school every person of Nevada City should be proud of this little high school.

So keep up the good work, students.

WHITE CHRISTMAS

At the student body assembly held Thursday morning, Miss Mabel F. Main, told the students the plan of the Women's Civic Improvement Club which is sponsoring the celebration of Christmas. They have decided to have a "White Christmas". The following legend explains the meaning of a "White Christmas".

A Legend of Cathay

"This strange country is called Cathay, and the ruler thereof is one Kublah Kahn, a mighty warrior, who, by reason of his strong will and truty sword, has made himself lord of the whole land. His government is both wise and just and is administered for rich and poor, alike, without fear or favor. On the king's birthday the people observe what is called the White Feast. Then are the king and his court asembled in a great room of the palace, which is all white, the floor of marble and the walls hung with curtains of white silk. All are in white apparel and they offer unto the king white gifts, to show that their love and loyalty are without stain. The rich bring to their lord pearls, carvings of ivory, white chargers and costly embroidered garments. The poor present white pigeons and handfuls of rice. Nor doth the great king regard one gift above another so long as all be white. And so do they keep the king's birthday".

This beautiful old legend fell into the hands one day of the minister's little wife, and it immediately started a train of thought in her mind. "And so do they keep the King's birthday!"—she said it over and over. "The King's birthday! Why, that is just what Christmas is—our King's birthday—and why couldn't we keep His birthday as they kept the birthday of their King, by bringing 'White Gifts' to show our loyalty and love?"

From this wonderful legend a laudable program has been worked out. It was requested that each student bring some gift, in the line of food or wearing apparel, to the Christmas tree which is to be located on the corner of Broad and Pine streets, at seven o'clock the evening of Decembes 20. Each gift should be wrapped in white, and in this way is carried out the idea of the "White Christmas". These gifts will be distributed among the needy by a committee appointed for this purpose.

By this plan it enables the students to be givers, a privilege which they will greatly enjoy because they realize that they are doing some good and constructive work.

Carols will be sung by the children while the gifts are being laid at the foot of the tree. If the weather is rainy the presents will be received at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The seniors, feeling the spirit of yuletide upon them have planned a Christmas entertainment for the freshmen. They have written Santa and told him what the youngsters want for Christmas and also asked him to visit the High School on December 20, to present these gifts. It is greatly hoped that old Santa will not be too busy to visit us, especially for the freshmen's sake.

Committees have been appointed to make ready for this much anticipated visit. The sophomore committee is to secure a tree, for Christmas wouldn't be complete without a tree. The junior committee is to decorate the tree and assmbly hall where the celebration is to be held. The seniors are to prepare a program for the amusement of both Santa and the freshmen.

Last but not least the freshmen are to act as a clean up committee.

CANDY SALE

Thursday afternoon and evening at the performances of "The Bird's Christmas Carol" the Honor Society of the High School sold candy. A neat sum was taken in, which will go toward the scholarship fund.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

By Harriet Bleakley

Christmas shopping is coming, the busiest, gayest shopping of the year! Rich and poor, children and adults will come hurrying, scurrying to the counters. On all faces, if at no other time during the year, there will be charming, happy smiles and eyes will twinkle merrily at the joy of giving. For what greater joy is there than the knowledge that you will make some little child, a dear old woman, or a loving parent happy by your little gift? Surely there is non.

However, astonishing as it may seem, there are a few, i'm sure a very few, whose Christmas shopping will be a worry, an imposition. They not only grieve over the loosening of their purse strings but spend many restless nights wondering what Jane is going to give tnem so as to be sure to send something just a wee bit better. For instance, if they found out by last year's cards that she had sent them a ten cent one they would neither give her a five nor a twenty-cent one but a fifteen-cent Christmas card. It would spoil their whole Christmas if they received a costly present from some friend that they either thought it unnecessary to send to, forgot or their financial conditions made it impossible to remember. I have actually heard people say that they didn't desire or deserve any gifts because they were unable to make returns.

Thee feelings should never exist at exciting Christmas shopping time. The cost of the article is of little consequence .It's the love that goes with it that counts. What comparison can be drawn between the little girl that takes her precious pennies from her pocket and proudly dmands "a hankie for mama" and the wealthy lady who carelessly throws her maid a five dollar bill to get her aristocratic mother "a handkerchief". If they were unable to purchase a gift for someone who remembered them that is no reason why they should be ashamed or consider themselves undeserving. On the contrary, the friend, more than likely, didn't expect anything fro mthem, knowing their conditions. Furthermore, she would be bitterly disappointed if she knew the worry her intended kindness had caused.

Ashamed or peevish feelings, partly disguised by half-hearted smiles, should not enter the stores where hearty laughter and real joy prevails. For at this time such feelings just naturally don't fit in. They are a much out of place as a cat in a pool of water. Therefore, in the coming Christmas shopping let's bang the doors on them and in every way possible drive these enemies out.

CLUB PROGRAM

Students of the High School furnished part of the program of the Women's Civic Improvement Club, Monday, December tenth.

Nadine Sutton gave a report on "Hell Roarin' Forty-Niners" by Albert Wells Ritchie .She told a number of the interesting incidents that took place in the early days of the gold rush in Sierra and Nevada counties.

Music was furnished by a number of the high school girls, who sang "Susianna," and "Clementine", songs of typical early days. The girls in chorus were Gertrude Marriott, Ruth Mezgar, Dorothy Tamblyn, Betty Bettles, and Kathryn Parsons.

The members of the club expressed their appreciation for the delightful entertaining furnished by the girls.

STUDENTS MUST GUARD AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS

Mrs. Hubbard, chairman of the Nevada County School Health Board, visited the Nevada City High School on Tuesday, December 10. The purpose of the visit was to tell the students of the school about the physical examination which is now being given in the public schools for the prevention of tuberculosis. Mrs. Hubbard in addressing the assembly told of the many advantages offered to the school children by the examination. Included in the examination is an X-ray of the lungs and heart. The examinations are to be made free of charge, while, regularly a person would pay from ten to fifteen dollars to have this work done. If a girl so desires she may have a woman doctor examine her.

At the close of the talk which Mrs. Hubbard made, slips were passed to the students. These were to be taken home to be signed by the parents if they wished their child or children to be examined The examination is not compulsory, but it offers a great opportunity to the students of the Nevada City High School. Many of these slips have been returned with the parents' signature. This shows that the opportunity is being made use of.

The examinations which to be held this week are being sponsored by the Red Cross, and will be made by doctors of good repute who will come equipped with the facilities to give these examinations. They will be assistd by Miss Davis, health nurse, and other local nurses.

TYPING

Aeola Smith of the Typing I class won her certificate for typing thirty words a minute for fifteen minutes. This was a remarkable record, for she has taken typing only three months. Lena Ghidotti won a bronze pin for typing forty words a minute for fifteen minutes.

SCRAP BOOKS

The students of the American History class handed in some very interesting books on the Revolutionary War. These books contain pictures illustrating the thrilling and stirring events that happened in the American Revolution. The books are very educational and are a credit to the class.

The pupils of the English II class prepared books on "A Tale of Two Cities" by Charles Dickens. These books are very neatly and cleverly done as they contain pictures of the important characters and scenes of "A Tale of Two Cities".

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair A Home-Made Mixture

Joicey Williams, the well-known American actress, recently made the following statement about gray hear, and how to darken it, with a home-made mixture:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will gradually darken gray hair, streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 once of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off".

OUT AMONG THE HILLS

By Margaret White

In summer I love to roam,
Out among the hills that seem like home
Where the pines look up to the blue, blue sky,
And the wild birds sing as they fly by.

Where the small streams flow so merrily,
And the flowers bloom in great variety
Here are life's most joyous thrills
Out among the hills.

PEACEFULNESS

By Gladys Clark

A shady nook, a carpet of moss,
Large willows where sparrows toss,
A bubbling brook, where little minnows play
What could be more peaceful on a midsummer day?

A cozy chair beside a bright fireside,
Raindrops playing on the porch outside,
Story books in their brightest array,
What could be more peaceful on a midwinter day?

ATWATER KENT

NEW SCREEN-GRID RADIO

FOOD FOR THOUGHT FOR RADIO FANS

While many radio manufacturers are making claims and counter claims about the superior qualities of their wares more power, more distance, more selectivity, more sensitivity, less hum, better tone, we ask you to be fair with yourself and think this over—Why is Atwater Kent the largest manufacturer of radios on earth? Why has Atwater Kent led all others in sales? And when we say ALL, we mean just that.

Why does Atwater Kent make and ship 12,000 radio sets per day at the peak season? Why has Atwater Kent factory capacity been doubled in the last year, making more than 32 acres of radio factory? Why do Atwater Kent dealers the world over continue to handle his line? Your fair answer to these questions should settle that all important question of

LOCAL MINING CHAPTER NOW HAS 93 MEMBERS WITH A GOAL FOR 250

The count now stands at 93 members in the local chapter of the Mining Association of California with the promise of attaining the desired goal of 250 members by early next summer. All this has been accomplished so far without the appointment of a membership committee by the chapter for an intensive campaign so that th showing to date is nothing short of marvelous.

Many inquiries are coming in to this office regarding the new insurance company which is to be formed and as soon as the application forms have been prepared al linquiries will be answered. The exhorbitant rate now charged by the state fund has been the largest obstacle in interesting outsid capital in our mines and the new insurance proposition has an immediate appeal.

Reports from over the state are to the effect that the association movement is meeting with favor everywhere and new members are signing up fast. A blank is printed at the bottom of this column which may be used in sending in applications for membership. See that one of your friends signs up one if you are already a member.

The rehabilitation of the gold mining industry is tied up in the success of the present movement and everyone who has any interest whatever in the industry, should not hesitate in signing an application. The small fee of $5.00 per year is absurdly low considering the benefits the industry will receive from being thoroughly organized.

SEND IN YOUR MEMBERSHIP TODAY!

The mining industry needs an effective organization at once if it is to be rehabilitated and placed on a par with the industry in other metal producing states and made attractive to investing capital. The new state mining association is already functioning in an effective manner, although but two months old. A mutual insurance company is being incorporaed which should reduce the cost of compensation insurance two thirds by another year and lift this heavy cost from the mining industry. If you want to see the industry flourish once more, you as an individual are going to invest five dollars a year to help bring this about. Sign the application blank below and send with your remittance to A. A. Willoughby, Secretary, Nevada City, Calif. Receipt will be mailed.

NEW COMPANY TO REDUCE THE COST MINING COMPENSATION INSURANCE

The State which makes the highest charge against the mining industry for such insurance, outside of California, is North Dakota, which charges $6.25 per $100.00 of payroll for the coal mining industry. When it is considered that coal mines have a peculiar hazard in the gases which accumulate in drifts, something almot unknown in the gold mining industry, it must be conceded that the coal mining industry presents much greater hazards than does precious metal mining, and yet California finds it necessary to charge $9.42 per $100.00 of payroll for the gold mining indutry as compared with $6.25 for the coal mining industry, the maximum charge imposed anywhere in the United States for the latter industry.

One gold mining company representative reported that that company carried its own insurance and that its experience was that $3.00 per payroll covered the entire sost of compensation to injured workmen and the hospital costs for their treatment.

Those mines which have insurance with the State Compensation Fund have had a omewhat more favorable report than those whose insurance is carried by the private companies. The State Fund pays no commissions for securing the business, that work being done by salaried employees. Furthermore, it has no invested capital on which to pay profits. This fund has been able to make a return of 29% of the premiums collected in the mining industry. Even this return does not bring the cost down to that charged by our neighboring States of $3.50 to $3.75 per $100.00 of payroll.

The smaller mines are unable to carry their own insurance because the cost of a single unusual accident might put a Company out of business, yet there are numerous companies that have been paying the high rates charged for compensation insurance, in spite of a favorable experience in the matter of accidents.

If the payrolls of the smaller companies could be combined and the experience as to accidents should remain as favorable as it now is with numbers of these mines, we believe the losses from the accidents occuring in those mines with a less favorable record could be met from a percentage of the massed payrolls no greater than that experienced by the companies that are large enough to carry their own insurance.

Your Committee experienced considerable difficulty in getting any satisfactory information as to workmen's compensation insurance costs and reults of the metal mining industry alone.

Mr. Gilmore of this Committee endeavored to get this information from the Industrial Accident Commission, State Building, San Francisco, California.

The particulars he asked for for the years 1917-1928, inclusive, were:

(a) Total payroll for each year.
(b) Total losses paid each year, subdivided under the following heads:
(1) Temporary partial disability
(2) Total partial disability
(3) Total disability
(4) Death.
(c) Premium rate
(d) Cost of operation of Department
(e) Rebates to insured.

The Industrial Accident Commission replied that it did not keep its records so as to show these results by separate industries. They referred the communication, however, to the Inspection Rating Bureau, San Francisco, Which does the principal rate making. The Commission expressed the opinion that even the prifate carriers probably did not make the segregations of overhead or dividends by industries. In any event, we could not get the desired information from the Commission.

The Inspection Rating Bureau replied that it was unable to give us a direct split of the metal mining losses as demanded in our inquiry, claiming that such a split did not affect the Bureau's rate making process.

Also the Bureau stated:

"Nor are we able to give you any information with respect to the actual premiums paid, rebates or cost of operations since these items also do not affect the rate making procedure".

The Bureau, however, furnished the following memorandum which it stated was the only information available covering the metal mining industry in California.

A glance at the figures will show that the total payments for serious and non-serious accidents and medical care in 1919 was 3.24% of the total payroll exposed. In 1922 the total was a trifle less than 4.7% of the exposed payroll. In 1924 the total was 5% of the total payroll. For the two years 1925-1926, the combined totals were 5.2% of the total payrolls for the two years. While this shows an increase from 3.24% to 5.2% over the lapse of 7 years, or about 35% increase from the lowest figure to the highest figure in that period, the premiums charged for carrying metal mining compensation insurance more than doubled in the same period.

LEADERSHIP

Stability, integrity, judgment, initiative these are the qualities which make for leadership. Early Californians looked for guidance to individuals Californians of today seek leadership in institutions which have amply demonstrated their right to this distinction.

The Bank of America...ranking foremost among the state banks of California...has been entrusted with the responsibilities of leadership. In the farming communities, the lumber regions, the stock country, the fruit belts, the oil sections, and in the great centers of population, Californians look to this bank as a staunch friend They see in it an institution whose leadership is based on its ability to safeguard and to serve.

On the basis of stability, integrity, judgment, initiative...the qualities of leadership...the Bank of America invites your account.

FRENCH CORRAL ITEMS

FRENCH CORRAL, Dec. 14 (Special to The Nugget)—Rain! Rain! Rain! Oh this blessed rain. It seems we can talk of nothing else. But my, how over generous they are with it! Almost a week, and no sign of ceasing yet. Well, we had nothing to say about its coming, and sure we will have nothing to say about its ceasing. But what a deliverance from that awful drought we have been living for past months. We know all about it in our section. Well, we may look forward to a bright and happy Christmas, and trust that in their home cheer, no one will forget the fine turkey supper to be given at the S. J. R. W. A's. dance at North San Juan, on Christmas Eve. We hope for a good attendance.

Well, let's see what people are doing here, in this rainy weathr.

Friday Clyde Browning made a trip to Sacramento to help Mr. and Mrs. Morrison in moving back to that place. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are relatives of Mrs. F. S. Wood of Sweetland, and for some months have been occupying the Proom place in Sweetland. They likd the Ridge, but did not like the drought which caused their well to go dry. Carrying water from a distance is by no means as easy task. A dring from "the old oaken bucket" is a delicious change from turning a faucet to get a drink of city water, but when it comes to trudging a mile with heavy buckets, the latter is preferred.

Miss Louise Moulton came from North Bloomfield Friday to spend the week's end with her parents in French Corral.

W. E. Moulton made a business trip to Marysville Saturday.

Herbert Clymo and son, Harold, and C. Byerrum of Benicia, were the guests of W. E. Moulton and family, Saturday and Sunday. Herbert is one of our "Sweetland boys" and all his early life was spent on the Ridge. He was for many years a resident of French Corral, after his marriage to Miss Flora Rosendale of this place a few years ago, the family moved to Benicia.

Carl and Ray Smith and a friend R. Parachini of San Francisco blew in Saturday a. m. Carl and Ray Smith are French Corral boys and were guests of their aunt, Mrs. W. E. Moulton.

Miss Frances Moulton came from Sacramento to spend the week's end with her parents. She returned to that place with her uncle, Herbert Clymo, Sunday evening.

Miss Millie Clerkin has returned to her home near French Corral for the winter.

Mrs. H. Thomas, who had been quite ill in the Nevada City Sanitarium, has returned to her home in Birchville, much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moulton and Mrs. E. Sutherland made a trip to North Bloomfield Sunday evening to take Miss Louise Moulton back for her school work.

Joseph Swazey and Ralph Thomas were down from the Siberia mine Monday and again Thursday. Joe and Ralph are born hunters and are fond of "quail on toast". They find that that toothsome bird is scarce in these parts this year.

Richard Hardenbrook, who has been spending some time with his mother, and uncle, Thos. Meyers of this place, left for Petaluma Wednesday morning where he expects to get employment.

W. P. Clerkin made a trip dowu the country Thursday to look after his cattle.

Joe Kneebone of the Kneebone Garage was a Thursday visitor.

A. Browning and N. B. Bishop had business in Nevada City and Grass Valley Thursday.

A. Browning has the addition to his family of a new baby boy. Congratulations. The big families are he ones worth while.

We lament the deaths of Mrs. G. L. Penhall and Mrs. Niles. Our pioneer women are fast passing the Great Divide, but the work of their good lives will be a lasting memorial.

C. E. and C. Ray Clinch were in San Francisco last week on business and returned Saturday evening.

Albert Thomasson spent a two week vacation in San Francisco.

Miss Marcia Gilbert is here from Oakland visiting her father, William Gilbert.

A large boulder rolling down the hillside on the highway grade north of the South Yuba crossing on the Downieville routt, held up travel for a time Thursday until the state maintenance crew got to the spot.

Mrs. Robert Young and daughters, Marian and Lois, of Roseville are visiting Mrs. Young's father, Charles Alpers.

TYLER JOTTINGS

CHEROKEE, Dec. 14, (Special to The Nugget)—The long looked for rain has come at last and it was very much needed and it will be a great deal better for the stock.

Mr. M. Wisler was a visitor here Sunday.

Stanley Deal of Sacramento was visiting friends here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Frost have returned from San Francisco.

Joe Swazey of the Siberia mine was visiting friends in French Corral Thursday.

Lee Day was a business visitor in Nevada City Saturday.

The school children of the Cherokee school will have a Christmas tree and program at the school house December 20th all are busy studyisg their pieces and hope to see all their friends there.

James Phelan has been kpt busy keeping the road to the main highway open. There are so many dead trees since the fire went through a couple of years ago they are very rottes the the wind is blowing them down.

Well Christmas will soon be here and friends and relatives will be coming to the old home to spend Christmas.

James Phelan and wife and Mrs. T. J. Flynn were business visitors in Nevada City and Grass Valley Saturday.

H. Meyer has his tunnel about completed and will soon be ready to mine. Hope he strikes it rich.

Several little mines are getting rady and all expect to make good. Here's hoping they are not disappointed.

Mrs. John O'Donnell was called to San Francisco by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Sheridan.

CAMPTONVILLE PERSONALS

At the last meeting of the season, the Campaonville Union Sunday school, under the auspices of the superintendent, Mrs. Kate Hope Livington, held a Christmas tree Sunday at the high school building. The work for the day was in keeping with the spirit of the occasion, and gifts were distributed to each of the children before the close. Candy, nuts, oranges, holiday goodies, pleasing to youthful hearts were given out.

At a meeting held a short time before the closing of school, the Student Body of the Camptonville high school held election of officers. XMAS PLAY PRESENTED BY THE HIGH SCHOOL

Despite the rainy weather, a large crowd attended the play "The Bird's Christmas Carol", prsented by the High School at the Nevada Theatre on Thursday night, December 12. The cast received many deserved compliments on the manner in which they dramatized this well known Christmas story.

Ruth Rector assumed unusually well the role of Carol Bird, who was the leading character. Ruth, in the role of Carol, was the crippled laughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bird. Although her life was overshadowed by a grave affliction, she saw the brighter side of life and was always trying to make some one happy She brought happiness to the Ruggleses by inviting them to her Christmas party.

Milton Masters, as Mr. Bird, and Grace Towle, as Mrs. Bird, proved to be fond loving parents. They both idolized their lovely little crippled daughter, but Mr. Bird, was not wholly willing to make the sacrifice of his, Christmas to the Ruggleses in order that both Carol and the Ruggles family might have a happy Christmas. Grace Towle in the role of Mrs. Bird, was a sweet gentle woman, who tried to satisfy both her little crippled daughter and her somewhat selfish husband.

Bill Rector very ably took the part of Uncle Jack, who was a close ally of Carol's ,in all her plans when he was a member of the "Bird's Nest" which was not very often because he was a "rolling stone". Like the proverbial rolling stone he did not want to gather any moss, but through Carol's schemings he meets Elfrida, Carol' nurse, and he pectators were lead believe that he had changed him ideas about "gathering no moss". Madeline Himes proved a very sweet Elfrida.

Last but not least was the Ruggles family, Ann William was Mrs. Ruggles. She proved to be a very able mother and manager of the sevn little Ruggleses. But what a time that poor woman had trying to fetch her children up properly as she a McGill, had been fetched up.

The parts of the various children were taken by the following:

Sarah Maud	Catherin Celio
Kitty	Erlene Sutton
Peoria	Beth Curnow
Clement	Warren Chapman
Cornelius	Bill Sharp
Larry	Harry Davey

The room was in constant laughter at the antics of the family.

The play was directed by Mrs. Hulen and Mr. Kjorlie. Between acts music was furnished by the Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. O'Neil.

The carols sung by the girls were very well received.

In addition Mrs .Gove Celio in her usual charming manner sang two songs which were accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Goede and on the piano by Miss Brandt.
